MONTRIP WINS CHEVY CHASE.

GENTLEMEN RIDERS IN PINK COATS PERFORM AT BENNINGS.

P Knut Thrown From the Favorite and Severely Shaken Up-Woden Takes the Other Jumping Event-Two Purses

for H. T. Griffin-Preen Gallops Again. WASHINGTON, March 25 .- A holiday crowd turned out this afternoon to see some excellent racing at the Bennings track. Society and nen high up in the political world crowded he clubhouse, while the lawn and betting ring were overrun by a gathering of turf enthusiasis who got their money's worth before the last race had been decided. The weather was all that could have been asked for, but the track was still heavy, so that fast time was an impossibility.

The feature of the programme was the Chevy Chase Steeplechase, in which gentle-men jockeys resplendent in pink coats had an opportunity to show their skill in the saddle in the presence of a throng of admiring friends, who came from Virginia, Maryland and New York in large numbers. The race, from a speculative point of view, was not altogether satisfactory, however, for S. P. Knut's double entry, Twilight and Duke of Grassland, who were hot favorites, failed to secure any part of the money. For that matter they did not even go over the full course, of about two miles and a haif, for the reason that Twilight fell at the very first jump and threw Mr. Knut, while Duke of Grassland ran out soon after and was pulled up by Mr. Parsons. Mr. Knut was picked up unconscious and carried to the clubhouse, where he revived later. No bones were broken, but a physician said that Mr. Knut was suffering from a severe shaking up.

The race provided a thrilling finish.
Clarence Moore's Montrip, the top weight, who went back to a to 1 in the betting, was in front all the way. But after going two miles he began to tire and Mr. Evans went to miles he began to tire and Mr. Evans went to work with a will to hold his advantage. A. B. Langherne's Sifter, second choice in the speculation, who was ridden by Mr. Okie, made a game bid for the money, and in a hard drive, in which both riders were whipping, Montrip won by a head in 8-01. Sifter finished twenty lengths in front of J. S. Larcombe's Jacobel, 4 to 1, who was closing so rapidly that he might have won if the distance had been a trile longer.

Jacobel, 4 to 1, who was closing so rapidly that he might have won if the distance had been a trifle longer.

As if there had not been enough steeplechasing, the Washington Jockey Club put on another jumping race, a selling event, which followed the Chevy Chase. Professional riders had the leg up in this affair, and Connolley la ded D. H. Smith & Woden, 11 to 10 favorite, a neat winner by a length and a half, running the distance, about two miles, in 432. Woden held Black Death, from the stable of J. W. Colt, second choice at 7. to 5, safe all the way, although the latter made the running until close to the last quarter pole. It was easy for Black Death to corraite place, however, for he beat Gold Van, a 20 to 1 shot, by more than fifty lengths. As the talent had generally predicted, the Goughacres Stable's Preen, who is in fine shape just now, came home on the bit in the lirst race, for three-year-olds and upward, at five and a half furlongs. Preen opened at 7 to 10, but he was so much in demand that he closed at 1 to 2. Creamer, who rode him, only had to sit still, for the Atheling three-year-old raced to the front and fairly breezed home three lengths before Father Bill Daly's Amberjack, 5 to 1. The latter showed much improvement and was strong at the end, beating Festoon, 20 to 1, by half showed much improvement and was strong at the end, beating Festoon, 20 to 1, by half a dozen lengths.

Tommy Griffin, who got the bulk of the money at Hot Springs, won the second and third races, each by a small margin. He started his Handspring colf. Belden, in the second event for maiden two-year-olds at four and a half furiongs, and with Shaw in the saddle the money went on in such quantities that the odds fell from 4 to 1 to twos. Belden, therefore, closed an equal favorite with W. L. Maupin's Cologne, a colt by Previous—Perfume, who was piloted by Baird, and who was the original first choice at 6 to 5. There was also a play on Ambitious, a filly by Buddha, lowered to 8 to 1, while Mrs. R. Bradley's Baby Willie came in for considerable attention at 7 to 2. Cologne had early speed and at one time looked as if he would remain in front to the wire, but he soon felt the strain, and then Shaw went to work with Belden. It was horse and horse in the stretch, Shaw outriding Baird to such an extent that Griffin's colt took the race by peck in 1:09. Ambitious ran third, four in the stretch Shaw outriding Baird to such an extent that Griffin's colt took the race by peck in 1:09. Ambitious ran third, four in the stretch of the cologies of the savery, showing qualities that should eep her in mind.

Oriffin started Bill Curtis in the third race, for platers at seven furlongs, but he put Bedfern up instead of Shaw. The smart people made Arabo the choice at 6 to 3, and the old horse went off like a rocket when Cassidy sent them away. Fuller, who handled Arabo, began to worry in the last quarter, and finally went to the whip when Bill Curtis came alongside. As a result Arabo out like a region and outled to a better died Arabo, began to worry in the last quarter, and finally went to the whip when Bill Curtis came alongaide. As a result Arabo quit like a yellow dog and could do no better than third. Under a heavy drive, meanwhile, Bill Curtis was heavily backed at threes, but he would probably have lost the race had not Divination. 7 to 1, been daught in the webbing of the barrier, which made her lose a lot of ground at the cutset.

The last race was a pitfall for the talent. Cincinnatus, a prohibitive fayorite, though he ran his race, was no match for W. S. Price a Unole Uriah, second choice, who fairly romped home with ten lengths to spare, Baird handling him with no exertion. Cincinnatus had four lengths over Warrented, 25 to 1. Three favorites and two second choices were successful and the ring suffered another series of joits. The summaries:

BASEBALL.

A Timely Hit by Fultz Wins the Game for Americans.

A base on balls to Elberfeld, Genins's error on Yeager's bunt, Anderson's accri-fice and Fultz's clean clout to right field connived to convey two runs to the plate deft inside work. So effectively did Clark-son and Hogg pitch that the Pelicans were smeared with kalsomine. No hits were made off Clarkson in five innings, and but two off Hogg in the last four innings. Both of the Gotham boxmen had speed that made the globe whistle on its way past the batter.

Clarkson delivered an occasional slow one but generally sent in a high, fast ball. Hogg's side arm delivery bothered the home hitters, he had a pretty wide ourve when turned it on. He and Clarkson showed an occasional wild streak, but always steadied

Couroy's third base play, which has been of the speedlest sort in the games here, was of the same type to-day, and Elberfeld, Anderson and Dougherty made teat plays. The New Yorks were somewhat remiss in base running, and lost chances for more runs by not being watchful enough on the bags. McGuire and Kleinow caught in fine style. Part of the team will play in Baton Rouge to-morrow and Monday, while part will stay here for a game to-morrow. Powell, Duff, Yeager, Newton, Hogg, Clarkson, Fultz, Orth and Whitley make the trip to Baton Rouge. The others leave to-morrow evening for Jackson, Miss. The score:

AVOCA BALL PLAYERS. Fine Crop of Professionals From Hughey Jennings's Birthplace.

WILKESBARER, Pa., March 25.—When Hughey Jennings, once the greatest short-stop on the diamond and now manager of the Baltimore team of the Eastern League, made Avoca, near here, famous by being born in it he doubtless did not realize what ambitions his success would arouse in the hearts of many other hardy youngsters of the same place.

Ever since Hughey became famous, however, Avoca youths have been deveted to the national game, and as a result a goodly crop of players from that little town will this season graduate into professional clubs.

Infielder Mullin is already with the Philadelphia Athletics and expects to make good if he is given a chance this year. Billy Crandelphia Athletics and expects to make good if he is given a chance this year. Billy Cranston, who did such good work with amateur teams last season that he attracted the attention of several managers, has signed with his hero and will be seen in the Baitimore infield this season, where he hopes to rival Jennings himself. Jack and Mike O'Neill of Minoaka, which is close to Avoca, are already famous. Jack has joined the Chicago Nationals, and will catch most of the games for that club this season. St. Louis wants Mike, but he has purchased a paying business at Minocka and will probably confine his ball playing to pitching for the local club, which is one of the best in this part of the State.

Jack MoCabe has signed with the Holyoke Club of the Connecticut League. Ed Conners, who learned to play ball in avoca, has signed with the Springfield team of the same league, and Outfielder Earley will be with St. Bonaventure college team.

Besides these a number of the ball players developed in this locality during the idle days of the anthracite strike of 1902 have secured professional engagements. Eddie Walsh will pitch for Chicago, Frank Burke will play first for Meriden, Left Fielder Arthur McCabe and Third Baseman Willie Pugh are with the same club; Jim Kelly will pitch for Kingston, N. Y., Jim Moran for Newburgh, Albert Newton will be with Sloux City, James and Will O'Hara with Lawrence, Mass., and Johnny Mulgrew with Villanova.

The forty-seventh games of the Seventh Regiment took place last night at the armery, Sixty-sixth street and Park avenue, and a lengthy programme of nineteen events provided an exciting evening's sport for a fashionable assemblage. As usual at these meets the fair sex predominated. A bit of an innovation was tried by the management this year for the fixture was made an open one under A. A. U. sanction and the plan worked well, for the attendance was a big improvement over the affairs of a couple of

Of the three open events the mile relay for the New York National Guard proved the most attractive. Seven teams toed the scratch, two teams from the Thirteenth and Twenty-second and teams from the Ninth, Eighth and Seventy-first. The Eighth was n the van for the first relay, but in the next the Thirteenth went to the front and kept there until the Twenty-second took a hand in the third and fourth relays and won by two yards from the Thirteenth.

In the scoring for the trophies there was the usual scramble for points. Company H won the Military Trophy, and was second, but Company G accounted for the Nesbitt Trophy, with a total of 31 points. The 1,000 yard run brought out a good field, with Paul Filgrim of Company E on scratch. He did not quite win, but made the best time since 1896, when A. B. Georgie covered the distance in the record time of 2 minutes 25'; seconds. Filgrim's time was only 3.5 of a second slower.

Although W. Dodworth of Company H did not figure in the first three placed in the sack race, he hopped around the path with great speed. The event was a handicap, with Dodworth on scratch, and his time for the 178 yards was 27 3.5 seconds, and this equals she record made by W. A. Hughes of Company E on Dec. 15, 1903. The winner was N. SANFORD AFTER VINDICATION.

Football Coach Wants to Go Back to Columbia for It. George Foster Sanford, formerly coach of the Columbia football team, is anxious to the Columbia football seam, is anxious to return to the university, although he has taken no part in the agitation for him to get back and drill the players. Sanford wants the place as a vindication. The stigma lies against his name, he says, that he had a bunch of ringers when Columbia beat Yale and Princeton.

"I want to come back to Columbia, said the big Yale man, because my social and business reputation has been hurt by what has been said about me and the men who played when I was coach. All I ask is that the Columbia people pick out the players, satisfy themselves that they are eligible and I will take charge of them on the field. That will be enough. I feel sure that I can turn out a winning combination from the men, who will be put before me, and that will be vindication enough for me. The simon-pures ought to be able to learn football as well as the ringers.

"As things now stand, I meet men from Yale and Princeton in my business line daily who are sore on me just because they resent the games of several years ago. They are still sore about the ringers. I want to get away from that sort of thing.

This appears to be a sort of repentance on the part of Sanford. Columbia men in certain quarters are eager to get him, because they feel that Sanford as coach practically insures a winning team. Banford admittedly is a past master of football strategy and is considered to stand at the top as a football coach. return to the university, although he has taken
